ACCENTS: Every measure of music should have a slight ACCENT on the first count. This is produced by applying more pressure to the bellows. This is especially true of pieces of a rhythmic nature, such as marches, polkas, waltzes, etc.